

Questions for Colossians 4:2-18

November 27, 2022

1. What were they to continue in, and how? (v. 2) _____

2. What does Paul ask them to pray for on his behalf? (vv. 3-4) _____

3. How are we to walk toward outsiders? (v. 5) _____
4. What does it mean to redeem the time? (v. 5) _____

5. Explain the idea of speech with grace, seasoned with salt. (v. 6) _____

6. What would Tychicus and Onesimus provide the Colossians by coming to them?
How would this comfort them? (vv. 7-9) _____

7. Concerning Mark, read Acts 13:13; 15:36-41. Based on this, what significance do
Paul's words have concerning Mark? (v. 10) _____

8. What significance did Aristarchus', Mark's, and Justus' work in the kingdom especially have for Paul? (v. 11) _____

9. What did Epaphras pray for, and how does Paul describe him? (vv. 12-13) _____

10. What did Paul have relayed to Archippus? (v. 17) _____

Thought Question:

In light of verse 16, consider John 16:12-15; 1 Corinthians 2:13-16; Acts 15:23-31; 16:4-5; 1 Thessalonians 5:27; 1 Corinthians 4:17; 16:1-2; 2 Thessalonians 2:15; 3:14. Are the teachings in the New Testament epistles and Acts a binding pattern? (cf. 2 Timothy 1:13) If so, how do the aforementioned passages reflect such?