

Questions for Isaiah: Isaiah 24:1 – 25:12

July 3, 2022

1. This section begins with the statement” The Lord makes the earth empty and makes it waste.” Is this meant literally or figuratively? _____
2. And it shall be: as with the _____, so with the _____; as with the _____, so with the _____; as with the _____, so with the _____; as with the _____, so with the _____; as with the _____, so with the _____; as with the _____, so with the _____.
3. What is the reason given in Isaiah 24:5 for God’s judgment that is promised? _____

4. What is the basic point in Isaiah 24:7-13 about the effect of God’s judgment when it is completed? _____

5. Who are those lifting their voices in jubilation as described in Isaiah 24:14-15?

6. What is Isaiah’s response to this expression of jubilation? _____

7. Why does Isaiah express praise to God (Isaiah 25:1-5) after God’s judgment is promised in chapter 24? _____
8. What is meant by “in this mountain” in Isaiah 25:6? _____
9. What specific country is mentioned as the recipient of God’s coming judgment? Why? _____

Thought Question: Is the phrase “in that day” of Isaiah 24:21 speaking of the same day or period of time noted by “in that day” of Isaiah 25:? Or are they speaking of a different times? Please explain and give a reason for your answer.