

Questions for Isaiah: Isa. 52:1 – 53:12

August 14, 2022

1. Who is said will no longer come to Jerusalem? (52:1) Is this to be taken literally (physically) or spiritually? Explain. _____

2. “How _____ upon the _____ are the _____ of him who brings _____, who proclaims _____, who brings _____ of _____, who proclaims _____, who says to _____, ‘Your _____!’” (52:7)
3. After the message of redemption is heralded, what does the prophet call the people to do? (52:11) _____
4. What three things are said which summarize the Servant’s destiny? (52:13-15)

5. What New Testament passage provides absolute certainty that Isaiah 53 is about Jesus? _____
6. What is the “dry ground” out of which the Servant grows up? How does it relate to how His career unfolded? (53:1-3) _____

7. “But He was _____ for _____, He was _____ for our _____; the _____ for our _____ was upon Him, and by His _____ we are _____.” (53:5)
8. What three results follow the “offering for sin?” (53:10) _____

Thought Question:

Calvinism erroneously teaches that our sins are transferred (imputed) to Christ. What do we see in Isaiah 53 which contradicts this doctrine? How did He bear the sin of many?