Lesson # 11

Review of Genesis

Remembering the Purpose of O.T.

(1 Corinthians 10:6-11)

⁶ Now these things became our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as they also lusted.

⁷ And do not become idolaters as were some of them. As it is written, “The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.” ⁸ Nor let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them did, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell;

⁹ nor let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed by serpents; ¹⁰ nor complain, as some of them also complained, and were destroyed by the destroyer. ¹¹ Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come.

Remembering the Purpose of O.T.

(Romans 15:4)

For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.

GENESIS.

CHAPTER I

IN the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.
2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And God said, 'Let there be light: and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness. And God called the light Day, and the darkness Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

CHAPTER I
IN the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.
And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, 'Let there be light;' and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness. And God called the light Day, and the darkness Night.
